1 title: metallbau

2 short profile: metallbau is aimed primarily at decision-makers from the structural metal and steel building trade in the D-A-CH countries. This means a total of around 19,000 active companies. Target audiences include both handicraft as well as industrially-oriented processors. The articles take into account the interests of the Managing Directors as well as the working environment of the responsible master craftsmen, technicians, engineers in planning, production and on site. Because interdisciplinary cooperation is becoming increasingly important for the various trades involved in a building project, we also address this entrepreneurial development.

The portfolio for metallbau readers includes classic topics such as windows, doors, facades, gates, winter/summer gardens, balconies, stairs, fences and railings. Furthermore, the companies also manufacture components for industry and fellow entrepreneurs on modern machinery such as laser, plasma, gas or water cutting systems.

The editors keep their readers informed about figures in the various market sectors, technical novelties, completed projects and modern business management. We accompany the constant digitisation and networking of enterprises with reports on brand new technologies and machines in use. The trade journal provides regular information on artisanal and academic paths in the metal and steel construction industry. Company portraits present profiles of contractors, technical reports keep readers up-to-date on standards as well as the use of machinery and software and offer concrete recommendations for practical work. Reader's tests, market overviews and reports on products ensure that readers keep track of suppliers and service companies and can make the right choice for pending investments. Industry experts and technical research and write for the editorial board of metallbau.
